A Heartfelt Welcome

from Jerry & Blessing

Dear Family and Friends,

With hearts overflowing with joy and gratitude, we warmly welcome you to Cape Town as we celebrate two extraordinary milestones: Jerry's 50th Birthday and our 20th Wedding Anniversary.

First and foremost, we want to say THANK YOU!

We know that being here has required sacrifices. You have taken time away from your busy schedules, made travel arrangements, purchased airline tickets, organized childcare, taken time off work, and travelled from near and far to celebrate with us.

We do not take any of this for granted.

Your presence is more than a gesture of love. It is a beautiful reminder of how richly God has blessed us with wonderful family and friends. We feel deeply loved, incredibly honored, and truly blessed to have each of you in our lives.

This celebration is not simply about a birthday or a wedding anniversary. It is a testimony of God's goodness, grace, mercy, and faithfulness.

Fifty Years of God's Grace

Reaching the age of 50 is a remarkable blessing. It is a milestone that many have hoped and prayed to see but, sadly, did not live to witness.

For this reason, we do not celebrate 50 years of life as an entitlement, but as a precious gift from God.

Through every season, every challenge, every victory, and every unexpected turn, God has remained faithful. Looking back over these five decades, we see His hand guiding, protecting, providing, and sustaining us.

Our hearts are filled with gratitude for the gift of life, the lessons learned, the relationships built, and the countless blessings received along the way.

Twenty Years of Love, Commitment & God's Faithfulness

This year also marks 20 beautiful years of marriage.

Twenty years of walking together, growing together, building a family, sharing dreams, celebrating victories, and navigating life's inevitable challenges.

Marriage is a beautiful journey, but it is not without its tests. We have experienced seasons of joy and seasons that required patience, understanding, forgiveness, sacrifice, and unwavering faith.

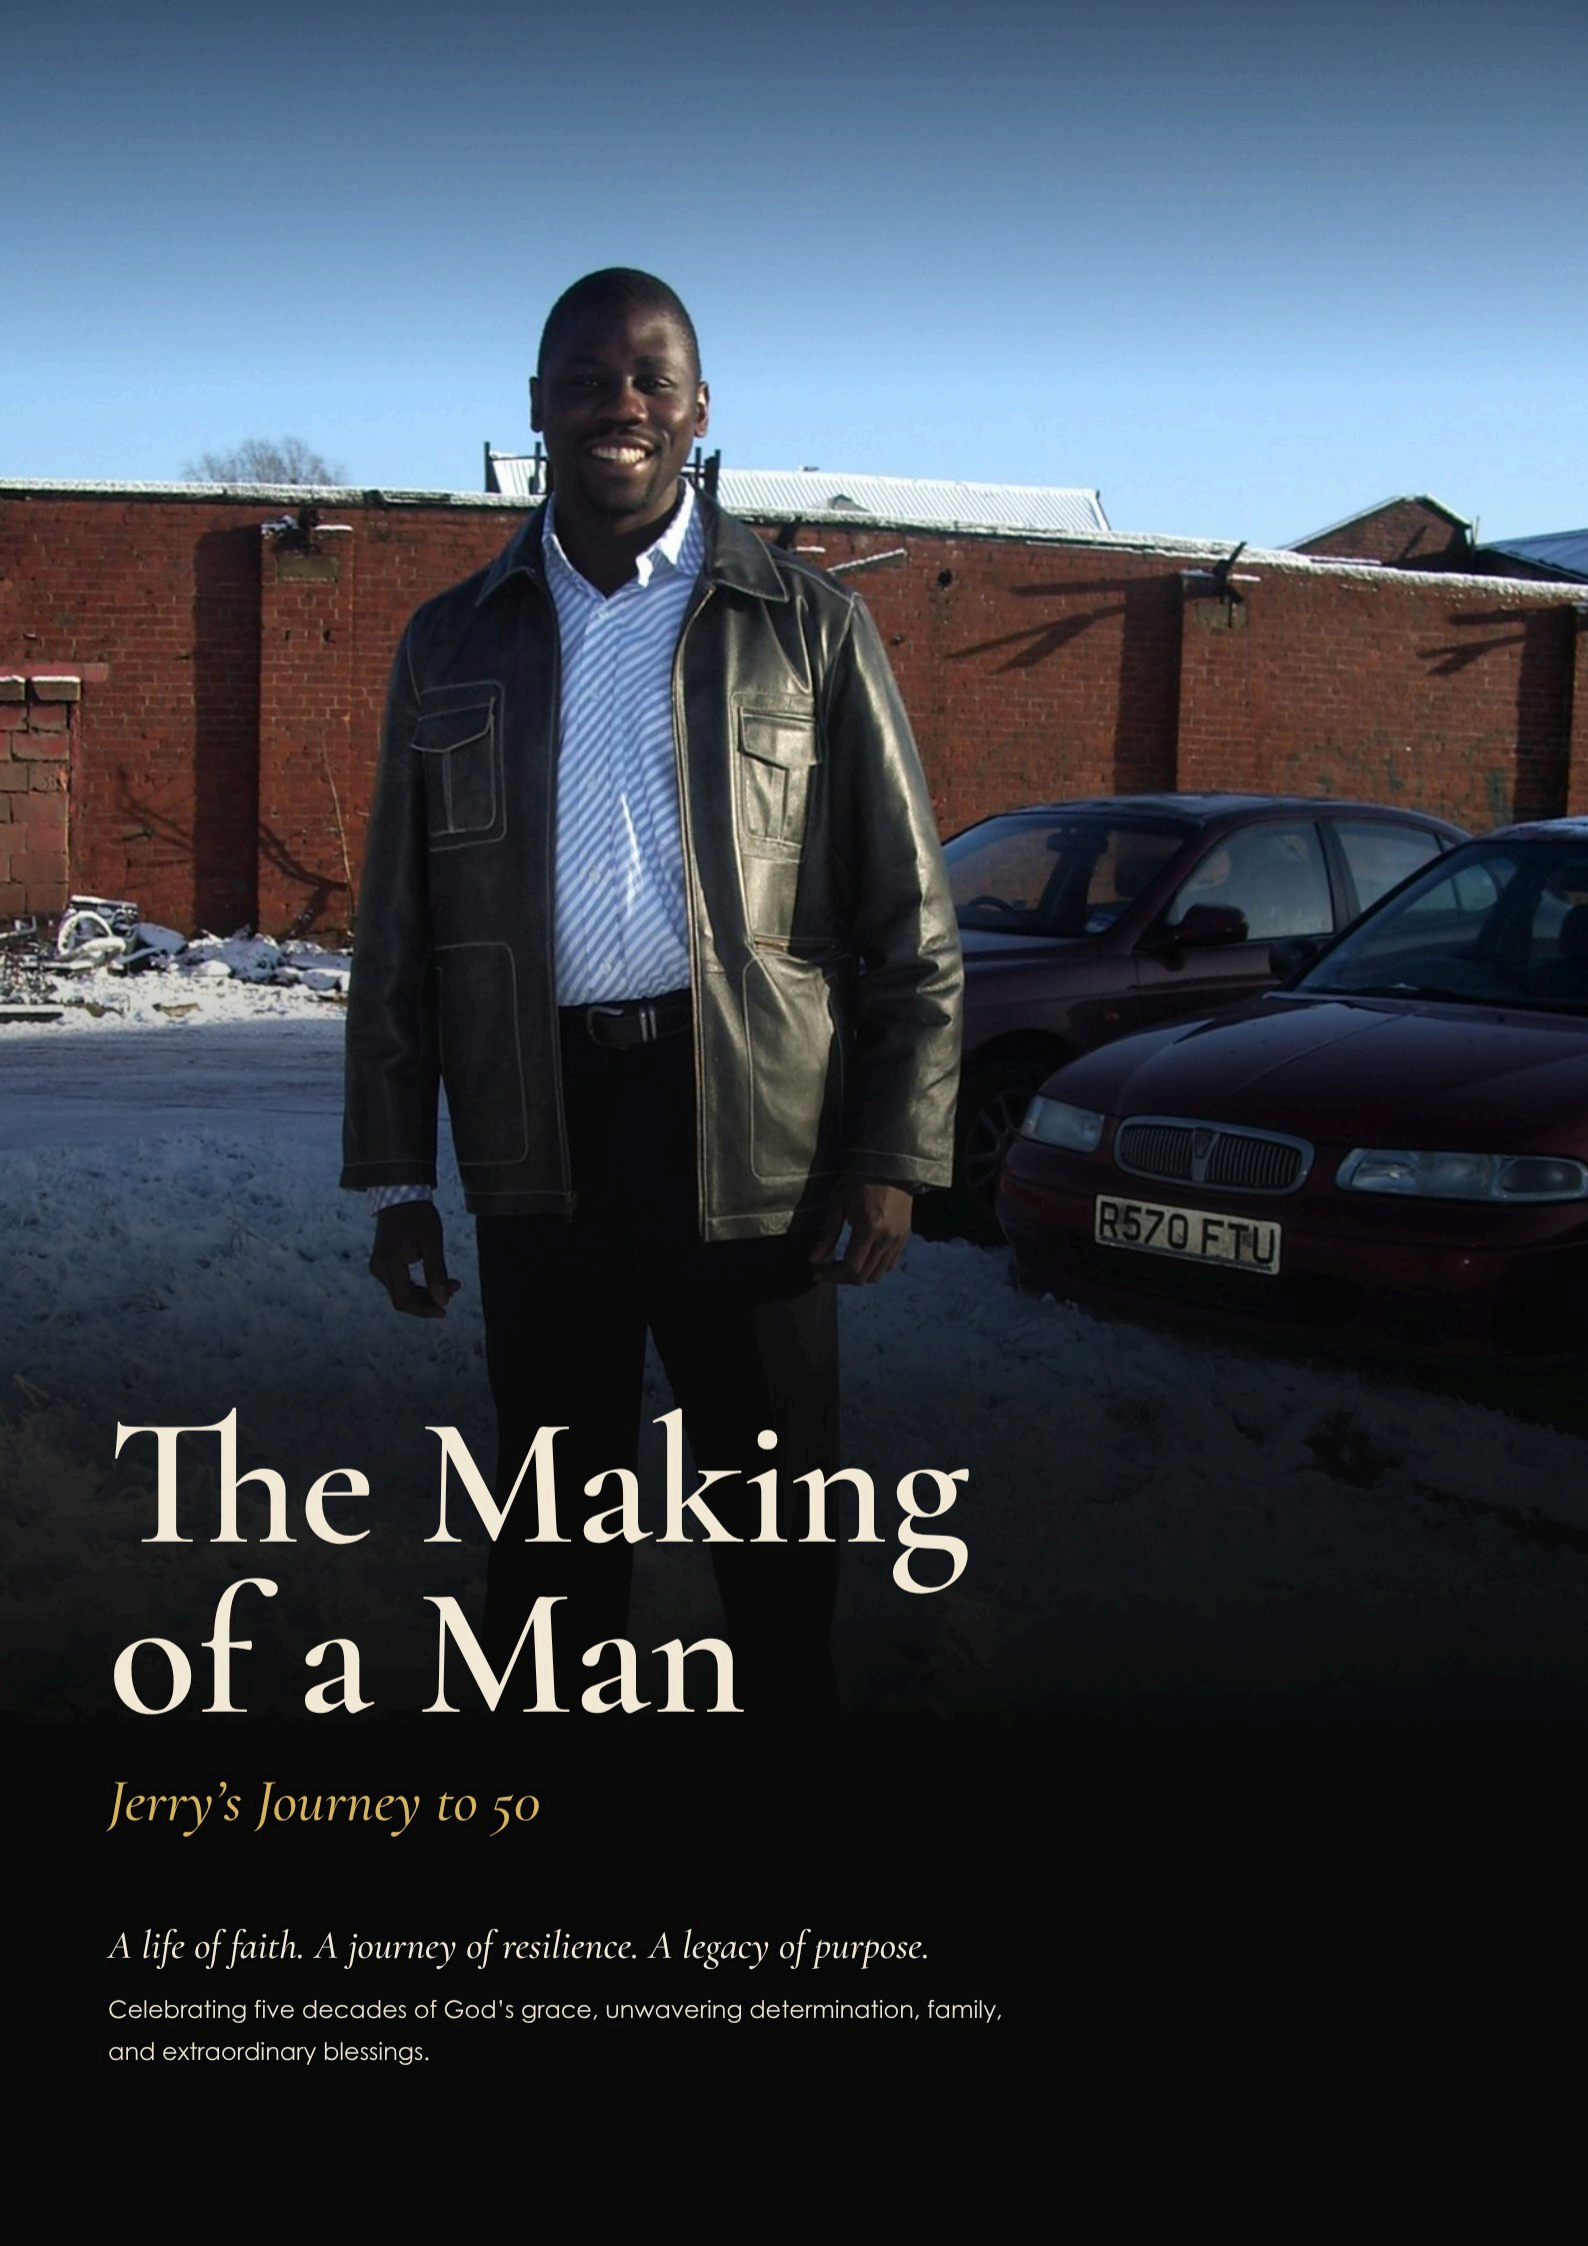

Through it all, God's grace has sustained us.

"We are not celebrating 20 years of a perfect marriage. We are celebrating 20 years of a faithful God who has given us the grace to love, forgive, grow, and continue choosing each other."

One of our greatest blessings has been the gift of our three amazing boys. They are a constant reminder of God's goodness and a source of immeasurable joy, pride, and purpose in our lives.

Our family is truly a testimony of His faithfulness.

The Making of a Man

Jerry's Journey to 50

A life of faith. A journey of resilience. A legacy of purpose.

Celebrating five decades of God's grace, unwavering determination, family, and extraordinary blessings.

Every remarkable journey has a beginning. For Jerry Pani, that journey began in Bafoussam, Cameroon.

Born on June 11, 1976, to Samuel and Christiana Pani, Jerry grew up in a family of nine children, surrounded by the love, laughter, responsibilities, and enduring bonds of a large family. Among his siblings is his twin brother, Olive, with whom he shares a particularly special connection.

Those early years helped shape the man he would become, instilling in him the values of faith, humility, integrity, perseverance, and the importance of family.

From a young age, Jerry's journey would be defined not simply by ambition, but by a determination to keep learning, keep growing, and never give up.

From Humble Beginnings to Greater Horizons

Jerry's educational journey began at Central Government Primary School, followed by Collège Bilingue d'Application and Lycée Bilingue de Yaoundé.

He later attended the University of Buea, continuing a pursuit of knowledge that would eventually take him beyond the borders of Cameroon.

Committed to professional excellence, Jerry pursued his accounting qualifications through the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), studying with Kaplan Financial. He further strengthened his business and leadership knowledge through an MBA at the University of Manchester.

Each milestone represented more than academic achievement. It reflected years of discipline, sacrifice, consistency, and a belief in the power of education to transform lives.

Where It All Began

The early years

"Those early years helped shape the man he would become."

Jerry and his twin brother, Olive, grew up side by side in a home full of children, faith and family. These treasured photographs come from those first years in Cameroon.

Growing up

School days and student years

"A determination to keep learning, keep growing, and never give up."

From the classroom in Cameroon to the University of Buea, these were the years of friendships, family gatherings and big dreams.

BUILDING DREAMS

Jerry's professional journey is a testament to what can be accomplished through resilience, consistency, hard work, dedication, and God's grace.

With more than two decades of experience in accounting, finance, and taxation, he has established businesses serving clients across the United Kingdom and the United States.

Today, he is the founder and owner of J&Co. Accountants Ltd in the United Kingdom, MYI Business Solutions LLC, and Tax Plan Strategists LLC in the United States.

In 2023, Jerry expanded his expertise into strategic tax planning, opening another chapter in his mission to help individuals, families, and business owners preserve wealth, minimize tax liabilities legally, and build stronger financial futures.

But behind these accomplishments lies a journey of perseverance.

Building a business, pursuing professional excellence, and creating opportunities across continents require courage, sacrifice, patience, and an unwavering commitment to one's vision.

For Jerry, success has never been merely about titles, qualifications, or financial achievements. It is about making a difference, serving others with integrity, creating opportunities, and building something meaningful that will outlive him.

Through every challenge and every breakthrough, he remains deeply grateful for the grace of God that has sustained him.

The UK Years

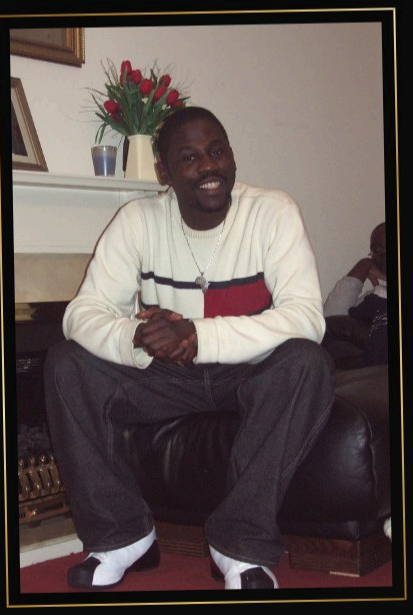

"Jerry was never afraid of hard work; he would take on any job that came his way to make ends meet."

Strategic Tax Advisor of the Year

Honoree, GADA Awards 2026

In 2026, Jerry was honoured at the Global African Diaspora Awards (GADA Awards) as Strategic Tax Advisor of the Year.

It is a proud moment in a journey that began with years of study and his ACCA qualifications, and grew in 2023 into strategic tax planning for individuals, families and business owners.

"Every achievement is a blessing, and every opportunity is a gift."

Faith: The Foundation of His Life

At the heart of Jerry's story is his unwavering faith in God.

His faith is not simply something he professes; it is a guiding principle that shapes his values, decisions, relationships, and outlook on life.

Through seasons of uncertainty, faith has given him strength. Through moments of success, it has kept him grounded in gratitude.

Jerry recognizes that while determination, hard work, and consistency have played important roles in his journey, none of his accomplishments would have been possible without God's grace.

His story is not simply one of personal achievement. It is a testimony of God's faithfulness.

The Greatest Blessing of All: Family

Beyond the professional accomplishments and entrepreneurial milestones, Jerry's greatest joy is found in the people he loves.

He is a devoted husband to Blessing, his partner in life for 20 years, and a proud father of three wonderful boys.

Together, Jerry and Blessing have built a life grounded in love, faith, commitment, and shared dreams. Their 20-year marriage has been a journey of growth, beautiful memories, triumphs, and challenges, all held together by God's sustaining grace.

Jerry also treasures the family into which he was born, the special bond with his twin brother, his siblings, extended family, and the friendships that have enriched his life.

For him, family remains one of life's greatest gifts and a reminder that true wealth is measured not only by what we accomplish, but by the love we share and the lives we touch.

Fifty Years. Countless Blessings. One Faithful God.

As Jerry celebrates his golden jubilee, this milestone is more than a celebration of age.

It is a moment to reflect on the journey from a young boy in Bafoussam to the husband, father, entrepreneur, and man of faith he is today.

It is a celebration of lessons learned, obstacles overcome, dreams pursued, relationships cherished, and prayers answered.

Not every road has been easy. Not every season has been without challenges. Yet through it all, God's grace has been sufficient.

At 50, Jerry looks back with gratitude, embraces the present with joy, and looks toward the future with faith and renewed purpose.

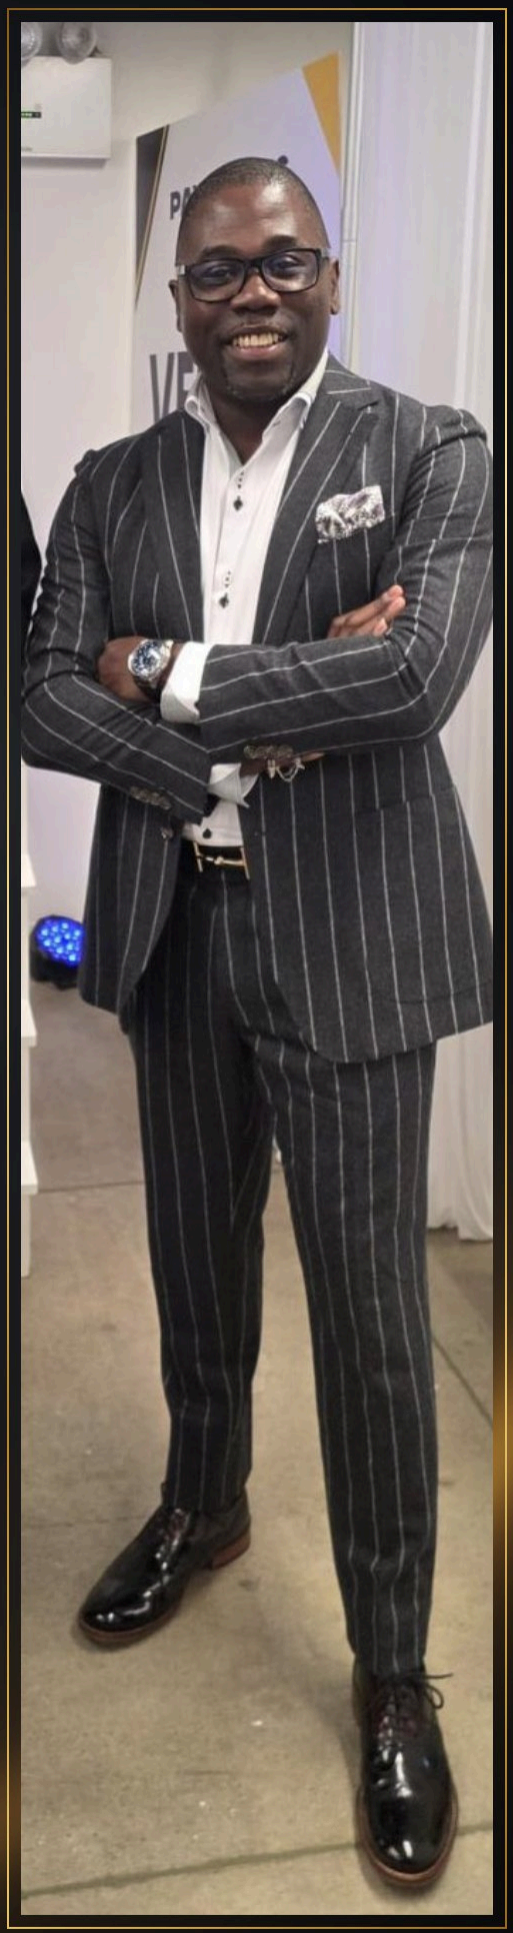

His greatest aspiration is not merely to be remembered for what he achieved, but for the values he lived by, the family he nurtured, the people he inspired, and the legacy he leaves behind.

From Bafoussam to the world, the journey continues.

The Man. The Vision. The Legacy.

The heart behind the achievements. The faith behind the journey. The dreams beyond today.

IV The Next Chapter
Fifty is not the finish line

I A Man of Faith, Family and Determination

To know Jerry is to know a man who loves God, values his family, believes in hard work, and is always looking for ways to grow and do better.

Born into a family of nine children, Jerry understands the importance of family and the special bond that comes from growing up surrounded by siblings. Those relationships have remained an important part of his life, and family continues to mean so much to him.

Jerry is a man of strong faith. He believes that everything he has achieved is by the grace of God. He knows that life does not always go according to plan, that there will be difficult seasons, disappointments, and unexpected challenges. But through it all, he has learned to trust God, remain focused, and keep moving forward.

He is hardworking, determined, and resilient. When he sets his mind on something, he gives it his best. He believes in consistency, even when progress is slow, and understands that anything worthwhile takes time, patience, and sacrifice.

But beyond the work and responsibilities, Jerry is a husband, a father, a brother, a son, and a friend.

He has shared 20 years of marriage with Blessing, and together they have been blessed with three wonderful boys. His family is one of his greatest joys and a constant reminder of what truly matters in life.

Like everyone else, Jerry is still learning, growing, and becoming. He has made difficult decisions, faced challenges, celebrated victories, and experienced moments that have strengthened his faith.

And through it all, he remains grateful.

II Dreaming Big, Working Hard and Trusting God

Jerry has always believed that where you begin in life does not have to determine how far you can go.

From his early years in Cameroon to building a career and businesses in the United Kingdom and the United States, his journey has required courage, determination, and many years of hard work. At the heart of Jerry's journey is a principle he strongly believes in:

> Success is not built overnight. It is built through hard work, consistency, perseverance, and God's grace.

For Jerry, success is not about shortcuts or instant results. It is about showing up every day, staying committed to your goals, learning from setbacks, and having the patience to keep going even when progress seems slow.

There have been long days, late nights, sacrifices, difficult decisions, and moments when things did not work out as expected. But Jerry has continued to push forward, learning from each experience and trusting God for the next step.

Today, he owns J&Co. Accountants Ltd in the United Kingdom, MYI Business Solutions LLC, and Tax Plan Strategists LLC in the United States.

These businesses represent more than professional accomplishments. They are the result of years of learning, consistency, dedication, and a desire to build something meaningful.

Jerry is passionate about what he does. He enjoys helping people find solutions, make better financial decisions, and create opportunities for themselves and their families.

But his vision goes beyond business.

He wants to continue growing, learning, creating opportunities, and making a positive difference in the lives of those around him.

He also hopes that his journey will encourage others, especially young people, to believe in themselves, work hard, remain patient, and never allow their circumstances to limit their dreams.

Jerry knows that he has not arrived at the end of his journey. There is still much he hopes to accomplish, and he approaches the future with faith, determination, and excitement.

Above all, he understands that while he can make plans and work towards his dreams, it is God who ultimately directs his steps.

III What Truly Matters

As Jerry turns 50, his thoughts are not only about what he still hopes to achieve, but also about what he wants to leave behind.

Of course, he hopes to continue growing his businesses and achieving his goals. But more importantly, he wants to leave something meaningful for his family and the people whose lives he touches.

For his three boys, he hopes to be more than a father who worked hard to provide for them.

He wants to be an example of faith, integrity, discipline, perseverance, and love.

He wants them to understand that life will not always be easy, that success requires effort, and that setbacks do not mean failure. He hopes they will learn to trust God, treat people well, remain humble, and have the courage to pursue their own dreams.

Above all, he hopes to teach them that lasting success is not achieved overnight, but through hard work, consistency, patience, and the grace of God.

He wants them to know that no matter how successful they become, family, faith, and good character should never be forgotten.

Jerry also hopes to build businesses that will continue to create opportunities and make a difference long into the future.

But perhaps the legacy that matters most to him is much simpler.

To be remembered as a man who loved God, loved his family, worked hard, kept his word, helped others where he could, and did his best with the life God gave him.

Not a perfect man, but a man who kept trying, kept learning, kept believing, and never stopped being grateful.

IV Fifty Is Not the Finish Line. It Is Another Beginning.

As Jerry celebrates five decades of life, he does so with gratitude for the past, appreciation for the present, and faith for the future.

Looking back, he sees the goodness of God in so many chapters of his life: in the opportunities that came his way, the challenges that strengthened him, the people who stood by him, and the lessons learned through difficult seasons.

He is grateful for where he started, thankful for how far he has come, and hopeful about what lies ahead.

There are still memories to make with Blessing, precious moments to share with his three boys, time to enjoy with family and friends, dreams to pursue, and opportunities to create.

At 50, Jerry knows that life is about much more than professional accomplishments or financial success. It is about faith, love, family, meaningful relationships, and making a positive difference in the lives of others.

His journey continues to be guided by the same values that have brought him this far: faith, resilience, consistency, hard work, dedication, and an unwavering trust in God's grace.

And if there is one thing he would want his life to reflect, it is this:

Work hard.
Love your family.
Stay true to your values.
Trust God.
And never forget where you came from.

At the heart of his journey is a scripture that beautifully captures his belief that, no matter how hard we work or how carefully we plan, it is God who ultimately establishes and sustains everything we build.

"Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it."

Psalm 127:1 (KJV)

For Jerry, these words are a reminder that every achievement is a blessing, every opportunity is a gift, and every new chapter is another reason to be grateful.

As he steps into the next season of his life, his hope is to continue living with purpose, loving deeply, serving others, and building a legacy that extends beyond himself.

Where Our Forever Began

From friendship to forever

5 years
of friendship

Every love story has a beginning, and ours began through a simple connection. Jerry was a friend of my brother, and it was through him that our paths first crossed. Little did we know that this introduction would become the beginning of a beautiful journey together.

What started as friendship gradually blossomed into love. For five years, we built a relationship rooted in friendship, trust, and understanding. When Jerry travelled to the United Kingdom, our relationship became long-distance, bringing its own challenges. But despite the miles between us, our love continued to grow through patience, communication, and commitment.

In 2005, we got engaged, and in 2006, we said "I do," beginning a new chapter as husband and wife.

Twenty years later, we look back with hearts full of gratitude.

Our marriage has been filled with beautiful memories, laughter, growth, and countless blessings. It has also come with challenges, sacrifices, and lessons that have strengthened us along the way.

To God be all the glory.

Through it all, Christ has remained the foundation of our marriage.

We have learned that a lasting marriage requires more than love. It takes communication, understanding, forgiveness, patience, and being intentional about one another.

Above all, we have learned that love is a choice, a choice we continue to make every single day.

We choose to communicate, even when it is difficult. We choose to make time for each other, even when life gets busy. We choose grace, forgiveness, and understanding. And through every season, we continue to choose each other, over and over again.

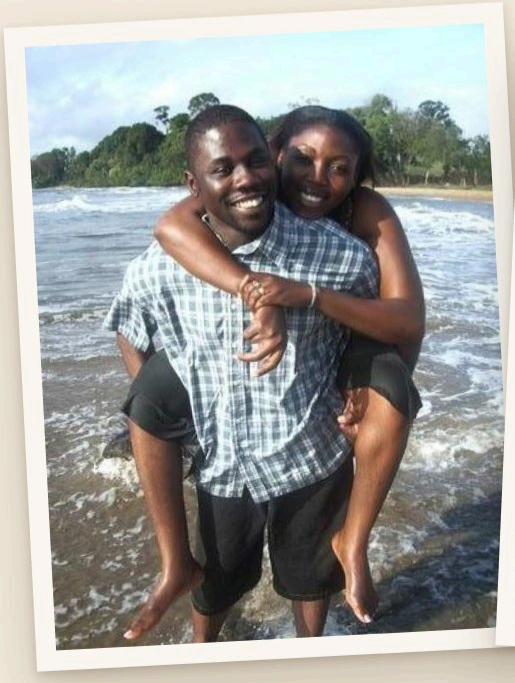

God has blessed our union with three amazing boys, who have brought immeasurable joy and purpose into our lives.

As we celebrate 20 years of marriage, we are grateful not because our journey has been perfect, but because God has been faithful.

What began as friendship became a lifetime commitment, and twenty years later, our love story is still being written.

To My Loving Husband

Twenty years later, I would still choose you.

My darling Jerry,

As I reflect on our journey together, I cannot help but thank God for you. You are kind, caring, patient, resilient, hardworking, and loving. I could go on and on, but words would never be enough to describe how much you mean to me.

I have always known that you were made for greatness.

I still remember our humble beginnings, living in a shared house where all we had was one room that served as our bedroom, dining room, living room, practically everything! And our only means of transport was a bicycle.

We didn't have much materially, but we had each other, our dreams, and our faith in God. Even then, I believed in you. I believed in us.

Our circumstances never discouraged me because I could see beyond where we were. I saw the greatness in you, your determination, your focus, and your willingness to work hard for a better future.

I knew that with God, hard work, consistency, and perseverance, our future would be bright. I have always believed in you, my love. Thank you for never letting me down.

And look at us today!

The Lord has transformed our lives in ways we could never have imagined. He has blessed us beyond our dreams, and every time I look back at where we started, I am reminded that He has truly been faithful.

Together, we have built three thriving businesses. Behind those achievements are countless late nights, sacrifices, difficult decisions, setbacks, and challenges that many people will never know about.

I have seen the pressure and the moments when things did not go according to plan. But through it all, you never gave up.

What many people may not know is how incredibly focused you are. When you set your mind on something, you give it your all. You put in the work, remain consistent, and refuse to let distractions take you away from your goals.

That determination is one of the things I admire most about you.

But beyond everything we have achieved, what I treasure most is the husband and father you are.

You have made our marriage a peaceful and beautiful journey, not because you are perfect or because we have never faced challenges, but because you are a patient, understanding man who genuinely wants to see me happy.

Because of you, I am a better person than the woman I was 20 years ago. You have taught me patience, understanding, and yes, even how to be more organised! (Wink, wink!)

Thank you for loving me and embracing my family as your own. The way you love and respect my mum, treating her as your own mother, means more to me than words can express.

Thank you for always making me and our three boys your priority.

You spare no expense when it comes to our happiness and well-being. But what touches my heart even more is that you give us something money cannot buy: your time.

I love watching you play video games with the boys, take them out for activities, laugh with them, and create beautiful memories together.

Despite your busy schedule and all your responsibilities, you make time for us. You are not just a wonderful provider; you are a present, loving father and an amazing role model to our boys.

I pray they grow up with the same faith, kindness, integrity, determination, and love for family that they see in you.

We began our marriage as two novices, with more dreams than experience, trusting God to lead us. And here we are, 20 years later, celebrating His goodness and faithfulness.

As we celebrate your 50th birthday and our 20th wedding anniversary, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for the journey we have shared and genuinely excited about the future.

I believe with all my heart that God has only just begun with us. There are still dreams to fulfil, places to explore, memories to create, and beautiful chapters ahead. And I cannot imagine anyone else I would rather share them with.

If I could go back to that little room in the shared house, knowing everything I know today (the joys, the struggles, the sacrifices, and the blessings), I would still choose you, without hesitation.

Thank you for being my husband, my best friend, my partner, and my greatest supporter.

Twenty years later, I still believe in you. I am still proud of you. I still thank God for you. And I still choose you.

Happy 50th Birthday, my love, and Happy 20th Wedding Anniversary to us.

From one room and a bicycle to a life filled with blessings beyond our imagination. What a faithful God we serve!

And the best, my love, is yet to come.

Forever yours,

Blessing

From Our Boys

"You bring so much joy and laughter to the rooms that you're in."

Happy birthday Dad.

It's been a long time coming but you're 50 now. You've been watching over me since I was born, sheltering me, helping me, and being a great role model. I just want to say thank you. If not for you I wouldn't have nearly any of the things I have today.

You bring so much joy and laughter to the rooms that you're in and every day I work hard to make you proud. The energy you carry around is always wonderful and I want to make people smile and laugh just like you do.

I know you work hard for this family and we appreciate you very much for all you do. Like you always say, in life you have to work hard to have nice things. I continue to work hard in my classes remembering your words. They have always inspired me and even when they can sometimes be repetitive I never take them for granted.

You're also the reason I am who I am today. You introduced me to your hobby, video games. The games that I played with you growing up, that you bought for me, and that I watched you play, also made a huge impact on my interests. When I would see you enjoy something it would make me also interested in the same thing. I'm very glad to share these similar interests with you.

I'm also truly thankful for all that you have done in my life.

I pray God continues to bless you and fill your life with happy unforgettable moments.

Our second son

Our dad has been great to us. He has carried us through thick and thin and we wouldn't be here without him. I just want to thank God that he made it to 50 because some people don't even make it to see 40.

He has been so great to us and always cares about us. Every time I say hi he always says how are you, which I'm lucky to have because some parents don't even acknowledge their children. I just hope and pray that he has many more birthdays and may God carry him through life and keep him safe.

He always tries to spend time with us by taking us to the mall and the movies and is always there for us, taking us to do things, but that's not all that matters. The best thing that matters is that he's always there.

"May we have a great birthday party here in Cape Town."

Joshua

Our youngest

I am so happy we are celebrating my dad's birthday here in Cape Town. I am really happy that my dad has grown older and he is still alive.

I am grateful for everything my dad and my family have done for me and my brothers, like helping us when we need help, buying us stuff, and more.

Thank you for coming to celebrate our dad's birthday. May we have a great birthday party here in Cape Town.

Family, Love & a Bond We Treasure

With love and gratitude to Pastor William & Pauline Limen

Dear Pastor William and Pauline,

As we celebrate Jerry's 50th birthday and our 20th wedding anniversary, we want to take a moment to tell you how much you both mean to us.

I still remember my early days in Manchester when I first moved to the UK. Everything was new, and being far from home was not always easy. But I thank God that I had both of you. You welcomed me into your home and your hearts, took me under your wings, and made me feel loved and supported. Looking back, I am so grateful that God placed me in such loving hands.

And how could I ever forget Jemima, Joella, and Jessica? Those three beautiful girls were my first introduction to motherhood. Babysitting them filled my heart with so much joy. I loved spending time with them, and little did I know that those precious moments were preparing my heart for the wonderful journey of becoming a mother myself. Those memories will always be special to me.

Pauline, thank you for the love, patience, and advice you gave me, especially as I found my feet as a young mother. You may not remember all our conversations, but I do. Your guidance and encouragement meant more to me than you probably realised.

Pastor William, thank you for your kindness, prayers, wisdom, and the love you have always shown our family. We are grateful for the encouragement and support you have given us over the years.

When we think back to those early days in Manchester, we remember the laughter, the conversations, the children, and all the little moments that became precious memories. Life has taken us through different seasons and to different places, but the closeness we share has remained.

We are blessed to be family, but what makes our relationship truly special is the genuine love, friendship, and trust we have built over the years.

Thank you both for generously sponsoring this commemorative magazine. It means so much to us, not simply because of the gift, but because of the love behind it. It is something we will treasure for years to come.

Pastor William and Pauline, we love you dearly. Thank you for opening your home to us, for being part of our journey, and for giving us memories we will always cherish.

May God continue to bless you both and your beautiful family with good health, peace, joy, and many more wonderful years.

With all our love and appreciation,

Words of Love

From the people who know Jerry best, in their own words.

"It is this integrity that makes you an exceptional human being."

Willy

Your brother

Dear Jerry,

For as long as I can remember, you have always worn that almost permanent smile, radiating an infectious joy for life.

You have often distinguished yourself through your loyalty and your respect for your word and commitments. It is this integrity that makes you an exceptional human being.

It is a blessing from God to be able to celebrate your 50th birthday in such a magnificent way, surrounded by family and friends.

This celebration is also a tribute to the man you are and to your wonderful human qualities. It is an invitation to continue embodying these virtues throughout all the years that God will grant you.

"Hitting 50 has never looked so good."

Happy birthday Chaks, aka J. As we celebrate your golden age today, I would like to call upon the Lord to bless you with every blessing in heavenly places. I am grateful to God for putting you in my life as a sibling.

It's rare to find someone who is as sharp and clever as you are, yet still so genuinely loving and warm. Even though you're my younger brother, you've grown into a man I truly admire. Whenever life gets complicated, you're the first person to step in with practical help, a steady hand, and advice that actually makes sense.

Thank you for all you have done for me and my family. Thank you for lending your ears to me when the need be and for being so confidential. You don't just support the people around you. You lift them up and make them feel like anything is possible.

Hitting 50 has never looked so good. Whether you're walking into a room or just hanging out, your sense of style and presence are completely unmatched.

Thank you for being a constant support and an amazing little brother over the last five decades. May this milestone year bring you as much joy, success, health and whatever you desire. Welcome to the 50 club, little bro. You've earned every bit of it.

Always remember Isaiah 46 verse 4: "Even to your old age and grey hairs I am He; I will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you."

Mirelle & family Your sister

"It's funny how the little things stay with you."

When I think of Uncle Jerry, I think of someone who has always brought laughter and good energy wherever he goes. Growing up, you were never overly strict. You were someone we could laugh with and have fun with. I still remember you bringing your Nintendo over to our house and playing with us. I loved visiting Manchester and never felt out of the loop despite being in Swindon. Those are some of my favourite childhood memories, and it's funny how the little things stay with you.

What I've always appreciated about you is that, although you are so easygoing, you are also incredibly intelligent and wise. Whenever you've given advice, it has always been thoughtful and worth listening to. You've always managed to strike that balance between being someone we could have a laugh with and someone we could genuinely look up to.

You've achieved so much and come such a long way, and it's been great to see. I hope you know how much you are admired and appreciated, not just for your success but for the person you are.

Wishing you a very happy 50th birthday! I pray that the years ahead bring you good health, happiness and even more success. Lots of love!

Samuel Tchoya

Happy Golden Birthday, Jerry!

Focused, diligent, peace-loving, kind-hearted, generous, God-fearing and always smiling. A great father, a role model to his boys, a committed husband, a strict accountant. And, above all, my wonderful friend.

These are just some of the words that describe Jerry.

Jerry is a genuinely happy man whose smile is infectious and whose positive spirit is impossible to miss.

When Jerry first arrived in the UK, he lived with us for a couple of years before spreading his wings and embarking on his own journey. We remember those early days so fondly. Jerry was never afraid of hard work; he would take on any job that came his way to make ends meet. His determination, resilience and willingness to do whatever it took to build a better future were evident from the very beginning.

Even then, we were convinced that a great future lay ahead of him.

It has been such a privilege to be an integral part of Jerry's growth journey and to witness the beautiful man he has become. We are deeply grateful to God for the opportunity to see him blossom into a wonderful husband, an amazing father to his boys, a dependable friend and a successful entrepreneur.

Jerry, your journey is a testament to the rewards of hard work, consistency, faith and determination. From those humble beginnings to the life you have built today, your story is one worth celebrating!

As you step into this golden chapter, we believe that heaven has opened over your life. May this new decade usher in even greater opportunities, divine favour, uncommon wisdom, sound health, lasting peace and abundant joy.

May your life continue to move from glory to glory, and may everything you lay your hands upon prosper. May you continue to shine, flourish and fulfil God's purpose for your life.

Happy 50th Birthday, Jerry! We celebrate you, we honour you, and we thank God for the gift of you.

Your best days are still ahead. The Lord has only just begun!

With love and heartfelt prayers

"The uncle of all uncles to me!"

Happy, happy birthday, JazzyUK!

The uncle of all uncles to me! From being the one who changed my diapers and took me to nursery, to being someone who has always been there throughout my life, I am just so incredibly grateful for you.

I thank God so much for your life and for the part you have played in mine. Thank you for always checking in on me, for genuinely caring, and for being one of the easiest people to talk to. You have such a beautiful way of making people feel comfortable and loved.

And your laugh!

Honestly, I love the way you laugh. Your laughter has the biggest domino effect. I can be trying to do something completely serious, but the moment you start laughing, I can't help but laugh with you just because you're laughing!

I've also loved watching you work so hard and pursue what you love. It has been such a beautiful thing to witness, and I truly believe you deserve all the success, all the Instagram followers, and all the happiness in the world. I am so, so proud to call you my uncle.

Thank you for being so amazing to me and for loving me so well over the years. I love you and care for you so deeply. You truly are the dearest uncle to me, and I feel so blessed to have you in my life.

My prayer for you is that this new year of your life will be filled with God's goodness, joy and favour. May He continue to bless the work of your hands and give you success in everything He has called you to do. May He surround you with genuine love, beautiful opportunities and people who celebrate you. I pray that you would continue to grow in all that God has placed inside of you, and that this year would bring you more laughter, more peace, more purpose and even more reasons to smile. May God protect you, guide you and give you the desires of your heart. You deserve to be celebrated today and always!

Happy birthday, Uncle! I love you so much and I pray this is your best year yet!

"It's little moments like these that have stayed with me as I've grown up."

Happy 50th Birthday, Uncle Jerry!

I pray that God continues to bless you abundantly, grant you good health, happiness and many more beautiful years. May He guide your steps, favour you in everything you do and make this new chapter of your life your best one yet.

I honestly have so many lovely memories with you that I will cherish forever. From playing video games together to all the fun times we have whenever you come to the UK for your dentist appointments, there's always something to laugh about! Whether we're going to lovely restaurants or just spending time together, we always have the best times. I also still remember when you took me to the basketball park and taught me how to bounce a basketball.

It's little moments like these that have stayed with me as I've grown up.

You've always been such a fun, loving and present uncle whose laughter fills the room and whose techy AI Instagram posts make us fascinated, and you've been there for us throughout our childhood. I don't think you realise just how much all these memories mean to me, and I'm so grateful to have an uncle like you. I feel truly blessed to have shared so many special moments with you, and I look forward to making many more.

I love you so much, Uncle Jerry. I hope your 50th is filled with as much happiness as you've brought to those around you. May God's favour and grace never depart from your life. Have the most amazing birthday and I really wish I could've been there to celebrate with you.

"Even now, I can't hear that song without thinking of you!"

Happy 50th Birthday, Uncle Jerry!

One of my favourite childhood memories will always be you playing "Who Let the Dogs Out" for me and my cousins. Even now, I can't hear that song without thinking of you! You've always been such a fun and loving uncle, and I have so many happy memories with you. I especially love whenever you come to stay with us because it's always such a joy having you around.

As I've grown older, I've also come to admire you for so much more. Your hard work and dedication are truly inspiring, and you're someone I really look up to. I especially admire the love you have for your wife and the wonderful example you set of what it means to be a loving and devoted husband.

I'm so grateful to have you as my uncle, and I love you so much! As you celebrate this milestone, I pray that God blesses you with a long, healthy and happy life, filled with even greater prosperity, success and love. May the next 50 years be even more wonderful than the last!

"From the sugar reserves of Vallée de Mort to the businesses and families you serve today."

Jazzy, Jazzy, Jazzy, wishing you a magnificent birthday bro.

I still remember the days at Vallée de Mort when you were in charge of the sugar supply, making sure everyone got their fair share while carefully ensuring that the reserves never ran dry. Looking back, it seems those resource management skills were already revealing themselves.

Today, look at you: a child of God, married to our amazing mama Ble, father to handsome and intelligent boys, an accomplished chartered accountant, tax specialist, and successful business owner. What started as managing sugar has evolved into helping clients make wise financial decisions and ensuring their resources are managed efficiently and responsibly.

Thank you for your commitment to excellent resource management, from the sugar reserves of Vallée de Mort to the businesses and families you serve today.

Again, happy birthday, Jazzy! Wishing you continued success, good health, happiness, and many more reasons to celebrate.

"He is no longer just someone I met in church; he has become my brother."

I met Jerry in church when I was just starting out in business and looking for competent professionals to join my team. One day, he gave an update on the church's finances, and I was blown away by his eloquence, detailed approach, and impeccable dressing. His suits and shoes were always on point! From that day, I knew I had to get to know him better.

Fast forward to today, and we have built a wonderful relationship. He is no longer just someone I met in church; he has become my brother.

Jerry is down-to-earth, extremely hardworking, and one of the calmest people I know. Nothing seems to fluster him, and he remains composed in every situation. I particularly love his response whenever I ask, "How are you?" His answer is always, "Massa!" I have even adopted it myself!

Jerry, you are an inspiration to me, and I am grateful to God for bringing you into my life.

On your special day, I wish you long life, good health, abundant God's favour, greater accomplishments, and many more wins. May the Lord continue to strengthen you, elevate you, and bless everything you lay your hands on. Happy birthday, my brother! May your new year be filled with testimonies and open doors in Jesus' mighty name, Amen.

"A wonderful family man, husband and a committed servant in God's house."

Happy 50th Birthday Mr Jerry Pani.

One thing I admire about you is your kindness and willingness to share your knowledge. I still remember the men's group discussion on taxes, investments, and business, and how patiently you guided me when I approached you privately with more questions. I truly appreciate your generosity with your time and expertise. This you graciously extend to people who ask with so much kindness.

You are also a wonderful family man, husband and a committed servant in God's house.

May God bless you with long life, sound health, wisdom, and greater grace. May your new chapter be filled with joy, favor, and greater accomplishments.

Happy Golden Jubilee, Bro Jerry.

"Not just a good boss but also a wonderful person to work with."

Working with you has been a truly rewarding experience. One of the things I appreciate most about you is your humility and the simplicity with which you lead and relate to your team. You have created an environment where working together feels comfortable, respectful, and meaningful.

You are patient, tolerant, understanding, and considerate. You understand that everyone is different, and you make room for people to learn, grow, and become better without feeling judged. Your ability to listen, respect different opinions, and understand others makes you not just a good boss but also a wonderful person to work with.

What I admire most is that you are not only willing to teach but also willing to learn. You freely share your knowledge, experience, and expertise with your team, and you never make anyone feel small for not knowing something. You lead by example, and your approach to leadership reminds me that being a great leader is not just about giving instructions but also about listening, guiding, encouraging, and growing together.

Thank you for being such a supportive, approachable, and inspiring leader. Your kindness, patience, and willingness to invest in the people around you do not go unnoticed. It is truly a privilege to work with someone who makes both professional and personal growth feel possible.

The Best Is Yet to Come

With grateful hearts, unwavering faith and hope for tomorrow

As we celebrate these two beautiful milestones, 50 years of life and 20 years of marriage, our hearts are filled with gratitude for how far God has brought us.

Looking back, we see a journey filled with love, laughter, lessons, challenges, answered prayers, and countless blessings. Every season has shaped us, strengthened our faith, and reminded us of God's goodness.

But as grateful as we are for the years behind us, we are equally excited about what lies ahead.

We still have dreams to pursue, places to explore, memories to create, and so much more life to share together. We look forward to watching our three wonderful boys grow, celebrating their milestones, and continuing to build a family grounded in faith, love, and strong values.

As we enter this next chapter, our prayer is that God will continue to guide our steps, strengthen our marriage, bless our family, and give us the grace to live with purpose, love deeply, and make a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

We know that life will not always be perfect, but we trust the God who has faithfully carried us this far.

To Our Parents, With All Our Love

Christiana Pani & Mary Aseh

To our precious mothers, where do we even begin to say thank you?

You have loved us, prayed for us, encouraged us, and stood by us through so many seasons of our lives. You have celebrated our victories, shared in our challenges, and continued to lift us up in prayer, even when we were far away.

As we look at the lives we are blessed to live today, we know that we are standing on a foundation built through your sacrifices, your love, and your prayers.

Thank you for never ceasing to believe in us, for loving our family so deeply, and for being such a blessing to our children.

We pray that God grants you good health, peace, joy, and many more beautiful years. We love you dearly, and we hope we continue to make you proud.

Samuel Pani & Joseph Aseh

To our beloved fathers in heaven, how we wish you were here with us today.

There are moments in life when words cannot fully express what the heart feels, and this is one of them.

As we celebrate these milestones, we cannot help but think of you and wish you could see how far God has brought us. We wish we could share this moment with you, hear your voices, see your smiles, and celebrate together as a family.

Although you are no longer physically with us, the love you gave, the lessons you taught, and the values you instilled in us remain part of our lives.

We carry pieces of you in who we are, in the choices we make, and in the values we are passing on to our three boys. We hope we have made you proud.

You may not be here to celebrate with us, but you will always have a special place in our hearts.

We love you. We miss you. And we will forever honour your memory.

To Our Family and Friends, Thank You

To everyone who has travelled from near and far to celebrate with us in Cape Town, thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

We recognise the sacrifices you have made, taking time away from work and family, arranging childcare, purchasing tickets, and making the journey to share these special moments with us.

Your presence means more than words can express.

To those who have walked alongside us over the years, prayed for us, encouraged us, supported us, and celebrated life's victories with us, we are deeply grateful.

You are part of our story, and we feel truly blessed to have you in our lives.

Our hope is that this celebration will leave us all with beautiful memories, renewed friendships, and a deeper appreciation for the gift of life, love, and family.

As we turn the page to a new chapter, we do so with grateful hearts, renewed faith, and great expectation.

The years behind us are a testimony of God's faithfulness. The years ahead are an opportunity to experience even more of His goodness.

"The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad."

Psalm 126:3 (KJV)

Thank you

Thank you for travelling this journey with us.
Thank you for loving us.
Thank you for being part of our story.

Our celebration would not be complete without you.

The best is yet to come, by God's grace.

With all our love and gratitude,

Jerry & Blessing
